Upon deposit of such price as aforesaid no person interested in the Participating Shares specified in such notice shall have any further interest in such Participating Shares or any of them, or any claim against the Scheme or its assets in respect thereof, except the right of the holder appearing as the owner thereof to receive the price so deposited from such bank as aforesaid;
 - d. the exercise by the Directors or the Manager of the powers conferred by this Article shall not be questioned or invalidated in any case, on the ground that there was insufficient evidence of ownership of Participating Shares by any person on that the true ownership of any Participating Shares was otherwise than as appeared to the Directors or the Manager at the date of any compulsory repurchase notice, provided that in such case the said powers were exercised by the Scheme in good faith; and
- (d) decline to accept the vote of any person who is precluded from holding Participating Shares in the Scheme at any meeting of holders.

31. TRANSFER OF PARTICIPATING SHARES

- (a) Subject to the provisions of these Articles, shares in the Scheme shall be transferable by a transfer in any usual or common form in use in the Isle of Man or in such other form as the Manager shall from time to time sanction or allow, but so that every form of transfer shall relate to shares of one class only and shall state the full name and address (and, if required by the Manager, the nationality) of the transferor and of the transferee.
- (b) Instruments of transfer shall be signed by the transferor (and in the case of partly paid shares by the transferee) and shall be dated on the day on which they are signed. The transferor of a share shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee has been entered in the Register.
- (c) The Manager may decline to register any transfer of any shares in the capital of the Scheme in its absolute discretion. The Manager is not required to register a transfer of any Participating Shares of a Class which would result in the holder or the transferee holding Participating Shares of that Class having a value less than the Minimum Holding. No transfer of Participating Shares shall be effected or recognised unless:
 - (i) the Manager is satisfied that the person to whom the Participating Shares are proposed to be transferred (the “transferee”) has both read and understood the Scheme Particulars;
 - (ii) the Manager is satisfied that the transferee is qualified to hold the Participating Shares in accordance with Article 29; and
 - (iii) the proposed transferee has provided such information and documents as the Directors may from time to time require in order to comply with legal and regulatory requirements and guidelines.
- (d) If the Manager refuses to register a transfer it shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Scheme send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

32. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- (a) If a member dies or (in the case of a member which is a corporation) is dissolved, the survivor or survivors (where he was a joint holder), and his personal representative(s) or successor in title (where he was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders) shall be the only person(s) recognised by the Scheme as having any title to his interest, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased member or successor in title from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him.
- (b) A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, dissolution, bankruptcy or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as the Manager may properly require, elect either to become the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee. If he elects to become the holder, he shall give notice to the Scheme to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of the share to that person. All Articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the member and the death, dissolution, bankruptcy or insolvency of the member had not occurred.
- (c) A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, dissolution, bankruptcy or insolvency of a member shall have the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to attend or vote at any meeting of the Scheme or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Scheme. When a person becomes entitled to a share by transmission, the rights of the holder in relation to it cease. The person entitled by transmission may give a good discharge for dividends and other distributions in respect of the share.

33. GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- (b) The Directors, the Manager or the Fiduciary Custodian may call general meetings and, on the requisition of a member pursuant to the provisions of the 1931 Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after receipt of the requisition.

34. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least 21 clear days' notice. All other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least 14 clear days' notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat.
- (b) The notice of a general meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting, (in the case of special business) the general nature of that business and, in the case of an annual general meeting, shall specify the meeting as such. Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be given to all the members (other than holders of Nominal Shares), to all persons entitled to a share (other than a Nominal Share) in consequence of the death, dissolution, bankruptcy or insolvency of a member, to the Directors, to the Manager, to the Auditors and to the Fiduciary Custodian.
- (c) In every notice calling a general meeting there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a holder of shares who is entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a holder of shares.
- (d) The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

35. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- (a) The provisions of the Regulations relating to general meetings and service of notices shall be incorporated into these Articles.
- (b) All business that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and all business that is transacted at an annual general meeting other than the sanctioning of a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and reports of the Directors and Auditors, the re-appointment of the Auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the Directors and the Auditors shall be deemed to be special business.
- (c) No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting commences business. The quorum required to conduct business at a meeting of Shareholders is two Shareholders each being a member or a proxy for a member or an authorised representative of a corporation which is a member.

- (d) If, within 30 minutes (or such longer time not exceeding one hour as the chairman of the meeting decides) from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved or, if convened in any other way, shall stand adjourned to the same day two weeks later, at the same time and place, or to such later day and at such time and place as the chairman or, failing him, the Directors, shall determine. At the adjourned meeting, whilst two Shareholders present in person or proxy are required to constitute a quorum, in the event that two such Shareholders are not present within a reasonable time of convening such meeting, then the quorum shall be a single member present in person or by proxy or (in the case of member that is a corporation) by its authorised representative.
- (e) The chairman, if any, of the board of Directors or in his absence some other Director nominated by the Directors shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but, if neither the chairman nor such other Director (if any) shall be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman and if there is only one Director present and willing to act, he shall be chairman. If no such nomination is made by the board of Directors, then the Fiduciary Custodian may nominate a person to act as chairman.
- (f) If no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote may choose one of their number to be chairman.
- (g) The persons entitled to attend and speak at general meetings and at separate class meetings are the Directors (even if they are not members), the Manager, the Fiduciary Custodian and the Auditors (but their right to speak is limited to business which concerns them as such) and any other person invited to do so by the chairman.
- (h) The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least 7 clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and (in the case of special business) the general nature of that business. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
- (i) A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Acts, a poll may be demanded:

- (i) by the chairman; or
- (ii) by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (iii) the Fiduciary Custodian.

The appointment of a proxy to vote at a general meeting of the Scheme is deemed also to confer authority to demand or to join in demanding a poll and, for the purposes of this Article a demand by a person as proxy for a member is the same as a demand by the member.

- (j) Unless a poll is duly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn before the poll is taken, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (k) The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- (l) A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may (and shall if required to do so by the meeting) appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (m) In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
- (n) A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded.
- (o) The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

- (p) No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case, at least 7 clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

36. VOTES OF MEMBERS

- (a) Subject to any special rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class of shares:
- (i) on a show of hands, every holder of shares who is entitled to vote on the resolution in question and who is present in person and every authorised representative of a corporation which is such a holder shall have one vote; and
 - (ii) on a poll, every holder of shares who is entitled to vote on the resolution in question and who is present in person or by proxy and every authorised representative of a corporation which is such a holder shall be entitled to one vote for every share carrying such entitlement of which he is the holder.
- (b) In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register in respect of the share.
- (c) A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in the Isle of Man or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by the person authorised in that behalf appointed by that court and any such person may, on a poll, vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the office, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than 48 hours (or such shorter period as the Directors may permit) before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised and, in default, the right to vote shall not be exercisable unless the Directors determine otherwise. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiry of 12 months from the date stated therein as being its date of execution.
- (d) No member shall vote at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Scheme, either in person or by proxy, in respect of any share held by him or to exercise any privilege as holder of the share unless all moneys presently payable by him in respect of calls on that share have been paid.

- (e) An objection to the qualification of a voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, a vote may be raised only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is tendered. Unless an objection is made in due time, every vote counted and not disallowed at the meeting or adjourned meeting is valid and every vote disallowed or not counted is invalid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- (f) On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy. A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. On a poll, a holder of shares who is entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- (g) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, executed by or on behalf of the appointor and shall be in any usual form or in a form approved by the Directors. The instrument of proxy shall:
 - (i) be valid for an adjournment of the meeting;
 - (ii) be deemed to confer authority to vote on amendments to resolutions put to the meeting for which authority is given or at an adjournment;
 - (iii) be deemed to confer authority on the proxy, in relation to any resolution (including an amendment) put to the meeting for which authority is given or at any adjournment, to exercise or to abstain from exercising the relevant votes as the proxy sees fit in his absolute discretion and (in the event that he exercises any or all of such votes) to exercise each such vote in such manner as he sees fit in his absolute discretion,unless in each case the instrument of proxy states otherwise.
- (h) Where it is desired to afford members an opportunity of instructing the proxy how he shall act, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in any form which enables the members to direct how their votes are to be exercised on each of the resolutions comprised in the business of the meeting for which it is to be used.
- (i) The instrument appointing a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority certified in such manner as may be approved by the Directors may:
 - (i) be deposited at the office or at such other place within the Isle of Man as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Scheme in relation to the meeting not less than 48 hours (or such shorter period as the Directors may permit) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

- (ii) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be deposited as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than 24 hours (or such shorter period as the Directors may permit) before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

 - (iv) an instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in a manner so permitted shall be invalid, unless the Directors determine otherwise.
- (j) Subject to Article 36(c), a vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by the authorised representative of a corporation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the determination was received by the Scheme at the office or at such other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.

An authorised representative present at a general meeting shall be deemed to be a member present in person. On receipt of a notice which the Scheme reasonably believes to have been authorised by a corporation as aforesaid, then the Scheme shall be entitled (without further enquiry):
- (i) to treat the person named in any such notice as the duly authorised representative of the member; and

- (ii) if the authority is granted to such person in respect of a particular general meeting, to treat the appointment of such person as extending to any adjournment thereof; and
